MUNICIPAL ORDINANCES, RULES, AND REGULATIONS PERTAINING TO PUBLIC HYGIENE.

[Adopted since July 1, 1911.]

YONKERS, N. Y.

FOODSTUFFS—PROTECTION OF.

SEC. 44. No meat, fish, bird, fowl, fruit, vegetable, or anything for human food, not being then healthy, fresh, sound or wholesome, fit, safe, and proper for human food, and no animal or fish that has died by disease or accident, and no carcass of any calf of dressed weight of less than 70 pounds, or which at the time of its death was less than 4 weeks old, or pig which at the time of its death was less than 5 weeks old, or lamb which at the time of its death was less than 8 weeks old, and no meat therefrom shall be brought within the limits of the city of Yonkers, or offered or held for sale, or used as food anywhere in said city; and it shall be the duty of every person knowing of the violation of any of the said requirements to forthwith report the same and the particulars relating thereto to the health officer.

SEC. 45. No animal shall be killed for human food while in a diseased condition or while overheated or feverish; and it shall be the duty of all present who shall know of the killing of any such animal for such purposes forthwith to report the facts to the health officer, with the name of the persons so offending and the time and place when and where the offense was committed.

SEC. 46. Every owner, lessee, or occupant of any room, stall, or place where meat, fish, poultry, fruit, vegetables, or milk, designed or held for human food, shall be stored or kept, shall be held or offered for sale, shall put and keep up such rooms, stall, and place and its appurtenances in a cleanly and wholesome condition; and every person having charge or being interested or engaged, whether as principal or agent, in the care or in respect to the custody or sale of any meat, fish, birds, fowl, fruit, vegetables, or milk, designed for human food, shall put and preserve the same, in a cleanly condition, and shall not allow the same, or any part thereof, to be poisoned, infected, or rendered unsafe or unwholesome for human food.

SEC. 47. No person shall kill, dress, or prepare any animal for human food, in any market or place where food is kept for sale; or permit to escape therein or within 100 feet thereof any poisonous, noxious, nauseous, or offensive substance.

[Part of ordinance adopted Dec. 26, 1911.]

HOLLAND, MICH.

NUISANCES.

RULE 1. No person, firm, or corporation shall deposit or permit to remain in or on their premises any filthy or stagnant water, any foul slops, foul drains or garbage, decaying or decayed animal or vegetable matter, decaying or decayed fruit, or any offensive thing that may give rise to poisonous, foul, or offensive gases or vapors; nor shall they deposit the same in any street, alley, public space, private premises, nor in any stream within the city limits.

RULE 2. The carcass of any animal or fowl that has died within the city limits shall be removed by the owner thereof within 24 hours, and buried at a depth sufficient to prevent any stench; provided, that the carcass of a horse, cow, mule, dog, or of any other of the larger animals shall not be buried within the city limits, and that the carcass of a fowl or small animal shall not be buried within 50 feet of any well.

RULE 3. No person, firm, or corporation shall keep or maintain any slaughterhouse, slaughter yard, or slaughter pen, within the city limits; nor shall any person engage in rendering tallow, lard, or any animal tissue, as a business, except such rendering shall be so conducted as not to give rise to offensive odors.
